MFGRC CODE OF ETHICS

Below you will find the Code of Ethics adopted by the Board of Directors on Tuesday 10/12/04. This text was adopted after many revisions, long discussions, review of other national breed clubs "Codes" and consideration of input from the membership. This "Code" will appear in the MFGRC new member packets. New members by their application, agree to abide by and follow the Code of Ethics. The reaffirmation statement of the annual dues renewal also will note members' agreement to follow the "Code".

The Mid-Florida Golden Retriever Club (MFGRC) endorses the following Code of Ethics for its members. It is the purpose of the MFGRC to encourage its members to perfect through selection, breeding and training the type of dog most suitable in all respects for work as a companionable gun dog, and to do all in its power to protect and advance the interests of Golden Retrievers in every endeavor.

RESPONSIBILITIES AS A MEMBEROF MFGRC

Member's responsibilities include educating the public about the breed, keeping in mind that they and their dogs represent the breed, the MFGRC and the sport of purebred dogs in general.

Members are urged to accept the written breed standard as approved by the American Kennel C1ub, Golden Retriever Club of America (or other applicable governing body of the country in which they reside or exhibit) as the standard description of physical and temperamental qualities by which the Golden Retriever is to be judged.

Members are required to maintain good sportsmanship at all events and competitions, abiding by the applicable rules and regulations set forth by the governing bodies for such events and competitions. Member's conduct should always be in accord with the purposes and intent of the MFGRC Constitution and By-laws.

RESPONSIBILITIES AS A BREEDER

MFGRC members who breed Golden Retrievers are encouraged to maintain the purpose of the breed and are expected to demonstrate honesty and fairness in dealing with other owners and breeders, purchasers of dogs and the general public. Owners of breeding animals shall provide appropriate documentation to all concerned regarding the health of dogs involved in a breeding or sale, including reports of examinations such as those applying to hips, elbows, heart and eyes.

Breeders should understand and acknowledge they may need to take back or assist in finding a new home for any dog they produce at any time in its 1ife, if requested to do so.

Members who breed should sell puppies, permit stud service, and/or lease any stud dogs or brood bitches only to individuals who give satisfactory evidence that they will give proper care and attention to the animals concerned, and who may be expected generally to act with the intent of the statements of this Code of Ethics. Members are encouraged to use clear, concise written contracts to document the sales of animals, use of stud dogs, and lease arrangements, including the use, when appropriate, of non-breeding agreements and/or Limited Registration. Members should not sell dogs at auction, or to brokers or commercial dealers.

ADVISORY GUIDELINES

Breeding stock should be selected with the objectives of the MFGRC in mind that is:

Recognizing that the Golden Retriever breed was developed as a useful gun dog, to encourage the perfection by careful and selective breeding of Golden Retrievers, that possesses the appearance, structure, soundness, temperament, natural ability and personality that are characterized in the standard of the breed and to do all possible to advance and promote the perfection of these qualities. (Paraphrased from Article A, Section 2, of the MFGRC By-laws, as amended in 2004.)

MFGRC members are expected to follow AKC requirements for record keeping, identification of animals, and registration procedures.
